

BIRMINGHAM BLOOMFIELD DEMOCRATIC CLUB MEETING MINUTES
February 18, 2020

ADMINISTRATIVE MATTERS:

Executive Committee Attendance: Charles Gaba, Chair; Miriam Imerman, Recording Secretary; Debbie Rosenman, Trustee; Lynn Schechter, Trustee

BBDEMS CLUB BUSINESS:

Meeting called to order at 7:01 p.m.

Approval of Minutes & Agenda

Motions to approve made, seconded, and passed by voice vote.

Officer Reports:

- Charles Gaba, Chair, asked first-time attendees to self-identify, and asked all new attendees to provide their contact information. The Facebook page was mentioned.
- Charles met with congressional staffers in Washington, DC in January to discuss health care policy.
- 11th District Democratic Convention: Feb. 22, 9:00 a.m., Plumbers' Hall

New Business: Many openings for elective office in Bloomfield Township. If Former BBDems Recording Secretary Martin Brook is elected as Township Clerk, he would be the first Democrat elected in the Township.

New Business + Guest Speakers:

- Debbie Rosenman provided information about the Oakland County Democratic party, including: Changes in precinct map. Club members were advised to hold their absentee ballots until after Super Tuesday.
- Absentee voters were advised to sign the ballot's outer envelope. A bill has been introduced by Ruth Johnson, that enables the township clerk to open absentee ballot envelopes 1 day early.
- Susan Galloway, field officer for the Mike Bloomberg campaign,
- Elizabeth Warren's campaign: Shira Klosky Gamer spoke.
- Oakland County Circuit Court candidates: Presentations were made by: Laurie Savin, Clarence Dass, Maura Battersby-Murphy, and Nadine Hatten.

Club members were urged to vote on March 10.

Meeting Adjourned at 9:08 pm

Next meeting March 17, 7:00 p.m. Bloomfield Twp. Hall Auditorium